YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46TH CONGRESS.

The Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill up in the House---Full Report.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Singleton, of Mississippi, submitted the Conference Report on the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill, and it was agreed to. (Result of agreement is to add seven thousand dollars to the bill as it passed the House, four thousand of which is for consul general at Bucharest, and three thousand for increase in appropriation for the expenses of the commission appointed to act in connection with the minister at China).

After a few private bills had been passed by unanimous consent the regular order was demanded and the Speaker proceeded to call committees for reports. Bills were reported and disposed of as follows: By Murch, from Committee on Public Buildings, for erection of public buildings at Brownsville, Texas; Committee of the Whole. By Smith, of Georgia, from Committee on Patents, to amend the patent laws; House Calendar. (It provides that any person who introduces from a foreign country any secret art, invention or process useful and important to the public not patented there and at time of application not understood in this country, may, upon due proceedings, obtain a patent therefor, and any art invention or process which has been used or practiced unpatented for fifty years exclusively in the country where obtained shall be deemed secret in the meaning of this act.)

Shotwell for Auditor.

Wilson Advance.

If our exchanges express the popular feeling in this State, Randolph A. Shotwell will be nominated for Auditor on the first ballot. We have met only one man who opposed him for this office and his reason was that men of Shotwell's stamp was so scarce, that when found. they ought to be rewarded with the highest office within the gift of the people.

London Snobs.

The sensible people of London complain that there is a terrible lot of snobs in the suburbs. Recently an Englishman of literary fame moved out of town but the people of the suburban neighborhood ignored him for months. Then the Queen, in driving by, one day, called on him. The news spread like wildfire, and the first families of the vicinity all called and left their card at the house as the author. He waited till he thought everybody was come that had heard of it, and was coming at all, and then he drove out one day, and left each card at the house of its owner. Pretty good slap, wasn't it?

THE New York Herald, having come out for the re-election of President Hayes a few days ago, is now trying to get up a "boom" for Hamilton Fish.

That "Precident."

Communicated.

ED. NEWS:—Your correspondent has noticed a communication recently published in the Raleigh Observer, from "One who has no axe to grind," wherein he heralds his opposition to the nomination of Governor Jarvis.

He lays great stress upon the Constitutional provision which prohibits a Governor of this State, elected by the people in a regular election, from becoming his own successor, and would fain make it appear that such antagonistic feelings were occasioned solely upon that ground: but his declarations fall very flat indeed, when he sneeringly asks if Governor Jarvis is not candidate Jarvis' chief supporter and intimates that that gentleman might use his official influence to further his own nomination—his opposition is doubtless actuated by other motives; what they are being a matter of supreme indifference to your correspondent.

He admits that this provision in our Constitution is supposed only to apply to incumbents who have been elected to the office by the people in the regular way, and not when the lieutenant-Governor succeeds to the office in case of a vacancy, as is the case with our present Governor. But, he says, it ought to be made to apply in this instance, and inasmuch as this is the first opportunity the people have had of teaching that grasping set of mortals (as Governors are supposed to be) a lesson, Jarvis should be kicked out and thereby establish a "precident" that would henceforth govern this matter.

Well, as the gentleman who has no axe, seems to be so fully convinced that the establishment of such a "precident" would put a quietus on all further wrangling on the subject, it is to be hoped that he will keep quiet when he is told that a "precident" has already been "established, inasmuch as lieutenant-Gov. Caldwell was placed in the Gubernatorial chair, upon the impeachment of Holden, and afterwards elected to succeed himself in 1872.

The State Convention will attend to this little matter, my friend.

Respectfully.

ONE WITHOUT AN AXE OR GRINDSTONE.

Letter from Franklin.

FRANKLINTON, May 6—The weather is pluvial, with crops growing fine. Most of the corn and cotton planting is done.

Trade now varies with the weather. Fair weather it isn't much, inclement so that farmers can't work they come to town and make it quite lively; so upon the whole the merchants are doing a very good business still.

Mrs. James Vaughan died last Sunday. She lived to see all her children grown and well settled in life.

Yesterday lawyer Gay appeared before the mayor in behalf of Mary Ragly accused of indecent exposure of her person and acquitted her with the following appeal:

"May it please your Honor, you may hang the ocean on a grapevine to dry, lasso and avalanche, pin a napkin to the mouth of a volcano, skim the clouds from the sky with a teaspoon, throw salt on the tail of our noble American eagle, whose sleepless eye watches over the welfare of the nation, paste 'for rent' on the moon and stars; but never for a moment delude yourself with the idea that this charming girl is guilty of the charge preferred against her."

Last Friday while I. G. Stanton was negotiating for a horse, the animal was hitched to a buggy to test his working qualities, and by a double back action movement the horse mounted the buggy and rode clean through it. No other damage, only Stanton did not buy.

GEN. GRANT IN SPRINGFIELD.

A Livery Bill of Nineteen Years' Standing Presented and Paid.

A special to the Times from Springfield, Ill., says; "The Grant reception yesterday passed off without a single unpleasant incident, except that a bill for horse hire in 1861, with interest up to date, amounting in all to about $40, was presented and collected. The bill was made out by Wiley Crafton who kept a lively stable here in 1861, for $15.

"Crafton says that the horse was used by Grant to convey him to camp Britton, where he had official business and was kept standing to his order after he left the city as Colonel of the Twenty-first Regiment until the bill amounted to the sum stated. It is said the bill should have been paid, as were others of the kind, by the State; but the fact is it was presented to Grant and paid by him, with interest.

"The Hon. C. M. Smith stated to the Times' correspondent that he heard the bill was to be presented, and that he told the person charged with its collection that he would pay it on condition that it would not be presented to Grant."

FREAK OF A MADMAN.

THRILLING SCENE IN A THEATER.

A Maniac Rushes Upon the Stage. Kills a Man with a Hatchet.

London Telegraph.

A terrible scene took place in the Teatro del Circo at Madrid a few days ago. During the performance a madman forced his way into the house, armed with a hatchet, and contrived to climb from the auditorium upon the stage, where, brandishing his weapon furiously, he announced himself to the terrified audience as "the avenger of mankind." Upon one of the attendants approaching him with the object of persuading him to withdraw from the stage he smote the unfortunate man to earth with one deadly blow; and he managed to keep the police off, when they attempted to arrest him, by whirling his hatchet round his head with such force and swiftness that none of the agents of authority dared to rush in upon him. Presently, however, a party of soldiers made its appearance in the theater, under the command of an officer, who summoned the raging maniac to give up his weapon and surrender himself, but in vain; whereupon the detachment received orders to fire at him with blank cartrides, in the hope of frightening him into submission. All this time he was yelling at the top of his voice, flourishing his hatchet, and threatening to kill anybody who should approach him. Recognizing the impossibility of overpowering him without risking the soldiers' lives, the officer in command gave the the order to load with ball and fire upon him. A minute later the wretched man lay a corpse upon the stage, three bullets having passed thrugh his head, and this highly sensational dramatic episode having been thus brought to a close, the audience returned to their places, from which they had fled in terror when the madman made his first and last appearance upon the stage, and the evening's performances were resumed at the point at which they had been interrupted by "mankind's avenger."

A BUNCH OF LETTERS FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, N. C. May 7th, 1880.—Our town is quiet, nothing of a very interesting nature locally speaking, to write about. The political wave has struck our people. I believe the people of this county are for Judge Fowle for Governor, and Col. Thos. Holt for Lieutenant-Governor. It has been my pleasure to meet many of the most reliable gentleman from not only this but several other counties recently. Their almost unanimous statement is that the people are for Fowle and Holt. Judge Fowle will make a better and stronger canvass than any other man in the State. Col. Holt is not only a farmer but a manufacturer as well, what our State Fair is to-day is due to Col. Holt's patriotism and indomitable energy. Colonel is a good and effective speaker, carrying the hearts and confidence of his hearers with him whenever he addresses an audience. He is a man of large means, and but jinst in the prime of a vigorous manhood. He has faithfully and creditably represented his District in the State Senate. He is a dignified business man and will preside over the Senate with a dignity and justness which will reflect credit upon himself and State. The coming canvass will be a warm one. The vitality of either party is almost at stake, this necessarily makes it imperative for us to nominate strong men.

I hear of roseolo or mild cases of measles in many sections of eastern Carolina.

ASHEVILLE, May 5, 1880.—To-day is a busy day, the opening day of Federal court, great crowds of people are in attendance, most of them apparently from the mountain gorges.

This court can bring to the village more rough specimens of mountain citizenship than anything else can do.

Gen. Vance our Representative in congress is home on a flying visit, and made in the court house to-day to a large concourse of people, an interesting speech.

Yesterday was the day of our municipal election, the whole thing passed off quietly, and the entire Radical ticket was elected. The Democrats only placed their candidate in the field the Saturday before.

The religious services at the Methodist church on Sunday last, were that of a quarterly meeting, it was in many respects quite an interesting occasion. There for the first time we listened to a sermon from a Methodist pulpit, of above an hours length on baptism. There also for the first time also, we witnessed at church lasses of the copper colored race.

President Athins with his file of girls makes quite an impression.

With regard to one railroad the grading is now, as I understand, rounding Connelly's Hill.

Yesterday evening quite a number of the Literate of the village met and organized a Society, to be known as the "Asheville Literary Society, the principal object of which is, to encourage debates. COR.

PERQUIMONS.

HERTFORD, N. C. May 3 1880.—Items of general interest are scarce from this section. The fishing season is about over and most of the fishermen are wearing long faces, Owing to the day fall our inlet was too salt to be particularly attractive to the bong tribe, at least so say those learned in such matters. The fisheries of the Perquimans river have done scarcely nothing, and those on the sound have done very little better, yet those situated on the Chowan river have reaped a fair harvest. This is accounted for from the fact of the large large quantity of fresh water brought down by the Roanoke and Chowan river and journed into the sound in one broad inlet at Edenton.

Last week the ladies of the Episcopal Church, at this place, favored us with an entertainment, consisting of charades, tableaux and some of the most delightful music we have ever been permitted to enjoy. Pinafore was splendidly rendered and highly enjoyed on the first night; the second night we could not ourselves be present, but hear the perfo.mance spoken of in the highest terms. The entertainment was given in order to raise funds to assist in paying for the Rectory, and we are glad to hear that about sixty-five dollars was obtained. We understand this amount together with what had been before collected will be sufficiently adequate to meet the present payment. Ours are a liberal people and never fail to assist in a deserving cause.

The municipal election was held today. There was some little excitement but no political whatever, The town honored itself in re-electing Mr. G. D. Newby to the majority, together with the old board of commissioners, consisting of Messrs. W. R. Shannonhouse, T. C. Blanchard and J. C. Granberry, by handsome majorities. All good men and true. We of the East do not believe in turning out a true and tried officer simply to make room for a new man, but are old fashioned enough in our notions to firmly hold to the doctrine of keeping in office, those who have proved themselves the right men in the right pince. Hence we say give us Jarvis for Governor. A mass meeting to appoint delegates to the State Convention will meet at this place on the 8th instant and if we mistake not the sentiment of the public this county may be counted for Jarvis first, last and always. We hear very little about national politics. Some favor Tilden, some Bayard and some Thurman but all are agreed to support whoever may be nominated and feel confident of success provided the National Convention acts wisely.

The Railroad from Norfolk to Edenton via Elizabeth City and Hertford is booming. Work has commenced and it would seem from present prospects that we are right speedily to have the iron horse through our midst. A railroad would be a Godsend to this section and would make it the finest trucking sections in the court. Give us a railroad and along with it will come factories of all kind, a tide of emigration will pour in upon us and the old land will again flourish as of yore.

The Chowan Baptist Association meets at Bethel Church in this county on the 10th. We hear that extensive prepartions are being made for the entertainment of visitors. It is reported that the least remaining "pig" from the Bethel section was seen passing through town on Saturday at lightning speed and seemed to have no time to explain why he fled. J. B.

FRANKLIN.

YOUNGSVILLE, May 7.—As the time approaches for the meeting of the Democratic Convention, which convenes in your city on the 17th of June, the contest for the gubernatorial nomination seems to wax warmer and warmer. As yet it seems to be almost impossible to say who will be the Democratic nominee. We have read with great avidity the letters from the people on this important subject as they have appeared from time to time in the columns of the public journals. We have discussed the question fully with the people of our county; and we have no hesitancy in affirming that the unanimous choice for governor will be found in the person of our learned friend and honored and esteemed statesman, the Hon. Daniel G. Fowle. With this gallant hero at the helm of State, we can fear no defeat. He will martial our forces in battle array in such a manner that our barricades will be impregnable by any force which our Republican foe can send us. But the question has been urged by a great number of our citizens, why remove Gov. Jarvis from this exalted position which he has so nobly and manfully filled? Has he not been a good governor, and is he not competent to refill this exalted station? Certainly he is; we feel no hesitancy whatever in pronouncing Gov. Jarvis a true christian gentleman—a man of honor and integrity. At the same time we are fully convinced of the fact that he does not possess the intellect—the oratorical ability—to lead our Democratic soldiers to victory in such an ardent struggle as the ensuing campaign will prove itself. In the second place, as has been wisely suggested by a recent writer from Newbern; it is directly contrary to the constitution that our governor of North Carolina should become his own successor. Hence this, if nothing else, would be an objection to the renomination of Gov. Jarvis. Besides, the position which he to-day occupies was by no means secured by his own individual labors, but is attributable in a very great measure to the untiring labors of Judge Fowle. No man in the State made a more thorough and efficient canvass during the campaign of 1876 than did Daniel G. Fowle; no man in North Carolina is more devoted to the Democratic party and its best interests than Daniel G. Fowle; and no one of her citizens is more entitled to her respect and esteem, and is more able to fill acceptably the gubernatorial office than is the "silver-tongued orator of Carolina." Taking all these facts into consideration, we say that Fowle is the man for governor, he receives the position at the hands of the peoole; and, watch our prediction, on the 17th of June next Daniel G. Fowle will be nominated for governor by the Democratic party by an overwhelming majority, and he will consequently be the next governor of North Carolina.

As for lieutenant-governor we are a unit for our beloved and esteemed legislator, the Hon. Cnas. M. Cooke. Several gentlemen of prominence have been mentioned in this connection, but we believe no one of them is as much entitled to the position nor is as able to fill it as is Charles Cooke. He has filled several positions of honor in the State, and in each he has rendered perfect satisfaction. He was about the only man in Franklin who was able to redeem his county from the clutches of Radical oppression in the stormy days of 1876. Actuated by motives of the purest patriotism, he is at all timss ready and willing to go forth in the discharge of every duty that may devolve itself upon him. With Daniel G. Fowle for governor and Chas. M. Cooke as his second, our ticket will be elected by the largest majority at any time since the late civil war.

The magnanimous course of the Hon. John C. Scarborough in his administration of the arduous duties connected with the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction is heartily endorsed and approved, and we know of no one who is better qualified to discharge the duties of this important position than this truly worthy and meritorious gentleman. Mr. Scarborough graduated at Wake Forest College, one of the leading institutions of learning in our State, and fully meets the demands of the occasion. He was one of Wake county's most gallant soldiers in the late war, being in thirteen of the bloodiest battles of this terrible strife. Emerging from the war poor and advanced in age comparatively, he worked in the corn-field for money with which to secure an education, and to-day justly fills one of the most prominent positions in his native State. We say give us J. C. Scarborough for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

FRANKLIN.

BEAUFORT.

WASHINGTON, N. C. May 5.—This week we have many of our citizens in the town from all parts of the county, they being here in attendance upon the Inferior court of our county, which is now in session. We have talked with many of them, and find that they are all in good spirits over the present prospects for a crop this year, the majority of them having all of their crops planted. In the mean time they have not forgotten that we are to have a State convention soon for the purpose of making a nominatian for Governor, and allow me to say further Mr. Editor, that they all, or at least a large majority of them are very much surprised to see the article in the Observer purporting to speak the sentiment of the people of this county and very near all argued that answer to Justice is correct, that Justice must be the only man woman, or child in the county that is for Jarvis.

To the contrary Mr, Editor, instead of Jarvis being the man as Justice would have it, they are bent, bound, and determined to have Judge Fowle at all hazards, if such a thing is possible. There is no doubt Mr. Editor that our people have been misrepresented and badly so too by Justice, through the columns of the Observer. The people of this county say they want Fowle because he is a Statesman, a patriot and loves his native State, because a stronger man in every respect than Jarvis and because old Beaufort loves her son; and for hereteran Governor, we know of none more acceptable to the people of this county than Julian S. Carr. Mr. Carr is a young man of most excelent qualifications for the office, a man of large business capacity, he is also a man of means and if nominated would make an extensive and thorough canvass. We think it is time for us to do something for the young men of our State. We will for this time leave off politics and speak of matters general. Our town is now very much on the improve. Many new and handsome residences have been erected in the past year. Much of which is due to our Railroad form here to Jamesville, it (the road certainly has been the means of developing the fish industry on our river, which is now very profitable. I hope it may continue to improve.

For the present we will close but more anon, remember our people are tooth and toe-nail for Fowle.

You will find it to your advantage if you are in need of any kind of millinery trimmings to call at

Sunday in Leadville.

Chicago Times.

On Sunday here nearly every store is open. It is the chief day with the places of amusement; the smoke of the smelters perfumes the ambient air a little more villainously than usual, if possible and the streets are crowded. The Church bells gather many worshipers, but they are not missed from the thronged streets The miners come from all directions. From shafts and tunnels and prospect holes by thousands they come swarming in the streets, crowding the corners, filling the bars of the numerous saloons with a coming tide of humanity. Many come to buy their weekly supplies at the stores, whose clerks know no holy Sabbath rest; others come to talk over their strikes and finds, or to bring in their samples for testing. Crowds throng the more than a hundred gambling dens, from whose wide open doors the sounds of piano, violin and flute mingled with the shrill voice of the dealer at the faro table, calling: "Make your bets, gentlemen," and the curses and vulgarity of the players taint the sacred Sabath air. The gambling house knows no Sunday, and, though the law of the State expressly prohibits the opening of drinking or gambling houses on the Sabath day, it is as dead as though it had never cumbered the leaves of the statute books, and the police stand idly by watching its violation. Bleareyed and bloated debauchees, in whose besotted lives honor, decency and manhood have long since died, bandy ribald jests with the lost women who carry the liquors to the tables. Thieves and pickpockets, watching with keen eyes for the victim and the opportunity, mingle with the bustling crowds, and jostle you as you pass

DAILY NEWS

NDAY, MAY 9, 1880.

GEO. C JORDAN, Editor and Propr

THE TOBACCO planters of the South receive about $35,000,000 for their crops, upon which there is exacted by the governments of the world, including our own paternal government, a tax of $163,000,000! Was ever a product of agriculture subjected to such enormous oppression.

The members of the Democratic executive Committee of Franklin county, the names of whom will be seen elsewhere, are requested to meet in Louisburg on Wednesday, next, the 12th instant, Let every member be present, as matters of importance are to be attended to.

GRANT'S own State shows its appreciation of his claims and his character. Illinois so far has selected 147 Blaine delegates and 107 for Grant. But the Grant man believes he will get the 92 votes of Cook county. Conklin and Don Cameron profess to have no apprehension about the result; but it is clear that both Blaine and Sherman manifest a strength not at all satisfactory to the movers of the third term idea which they claim to be a spontaneous move of the people, and therefore calling for unanimity.

SOME YEARS ago the NEWS originated the first movements looking to the artificial propagation of fish in the waters of North Carolina. The idea was a new one, and if not received with opposition, at least excited but little interest. But experiment demonstrated its practicability and the business has become an institution. The operations on the coast have become stupendous, while the hatcheries in the mountains have not only been successful, but have become popular with the people. It is now seen that patience and perseverence, united with a certain degree of scientific skill, will in time restock waters which were the wonder of the first settlers, the memory of which has not yet faded from the memories of old men.

THE last veto of Mr. Hayes, of the defficiency bill relating to the pay of deputy marshals, whilst perfectly consistent with his record, is not a matter to give the Democrats any special concern. The amendments restraining federal interference with elections is one imperatively demanded by a condition of things which has reached that point, where, if the party in power chooses to enforce the claims to supervision, there can be no such things as free elections. The enforcement of such claims is a part of that machinery which looks to the permanent supremacy of the Republican party, because by its use, it can always count itself in. The Democrats can well afford to go to the country on an issue which puts an unrepublican and despotic system in contract to the true principle of our institutions which guarantees the unobstructed exercise of suffrage to all entitled to the use of the ballot.

Mr, Hayes has again made haste to ingratiate himself with that faction to whom he owes his illegal seat. Fraud and force were the weapons used to seat him, and he is compelled to endorse the instruments who used then by the recognition of their machinery.

He really has gained nothing by his veto; for he has even disgusted the fair minded men of his own party; and on the other hand, while evincing his purpose to employ force at the polls, he it without provision to effect his object.

IT is a stereotyped charge against the Democratic party in this State that the convicts are put to work on public works to the detriment of "the rights of honest people who should have their labor and get paid for it"

The Penitentuary has exclusively a radical creation. The sense of the white people before the war, they being the only class entitled to vote, was strongly against it, mainly upon the ground that the proceeds of convict labor would be brought into competition with free and honest labor. The election held in 1879 to distinguish the question of "Penitentuary or no Penitentuary" was so decided in its negative expression of sentiment that it settled definitely the question until the Republican party came into power after the war. Then there was haste to imitate the institutions of the North, and give the State a penal system conformable to the broadest humanitarian notions. Moral suasion and luxurious seclusion were to support those more vigorous enforcement of penalties in use in old times.

But the erection of a magnificent building and the maintenance of a swarm of felons in profitless idleness came home with stunning reality to a people ground to death by taxation flowing out of the many other extravagant measures of the Republican party, and when the Democrats came into power, they inaugurated at once the system which stopped in a great measure the expenses involved in the building of the Penitentuary building, and utilized a labor which had been an unproductive and costly burden.

It is safe to say, that but for the application of this labor to the public works, they would not have been undertaken, and honest labor therefore has no ground of complaint of a competition in that which never would have existed. The tax payers will be the parties to complain when they see what was a burden to them converted into a source of profit, and works undertaken to great general advantage which otherwise would have remained unattempted.

The proceedings of the courts plainly show that crime does not diminish, and the influx of recruits to the convict force is steady and continuous. The Penitentiary system being fastened upon the State by Republican legislation that party has no right to complain that common sense and common justice, too, are applied to the profitable or economical direction of convict labor. The felon does not repose on a bed of roses, we somit; but crime has ocurred its penalties, and must endure them. Party animosity of course will exaggerate the hardships or the cruelties of the situation.

Special Deputy Marshals.

In the United States Senate, Thursday, Mr. Bayard introduced a bill to regulate the pay and appointment of special deputy marshals who may be appointed in connection with sections 2021-31 of the Revised Statutes, known as the Federal Election Law. This bill is understood to be a measure acceptable to the Democratic leaders in Congress. It has been referred to the Senate judiciary committee, will be reported in some form probably nearly next week, and acted upon promtly. It modifies the existing law in some essential respects, but is intended to be as little objectionable to the representatives of the administration as possible. It provides that the pay of all special deputy marshals for service in reference to any election shall be $5 for each day of actual service, and no more. All such special deputy marshals shall be appointed by the Circuit Court of the United States in the district where they are to serve, "in each year at the term of court next preceding any election of Representatives or Delegates in Congress." If there should be no such session of the Circuit Court, then the deputy marshals are to be appointed at a special session of the District Court, held for that purpose. All the officers so appointed "shall be in equal numbers from the different political parties," well-known citizens of actual residence in the voting precinct where their duties lie, and of good moral character. It will be observed that this bill, if it should become a law, will require special deputy marshals to be appointed from the greenback as well as the Democratic and Republican parties in all districts where the former party exits as a distinct political organization, which is the case in the majority of the States. It seems to meet the President's objections to previous legislation on this subject too completely to afford him a colorable excuse for a veto.

It is asserted by letter-writers at Hot Springs, Ark., that there are more rogues of every degree, confidence men of superior audacity, and young men without visible means of support, to the acre in Hot Springs than in any other section of the country of equal population that can be named. A young clergyman from Texas, who was trying the hot water, found himself in hotter water then he expected. He was invited up the mountain-side to see a magnesia spring just discovered. In half an hour he was minus his silver watch and wallet containing all his money.

Cuticura

REMEDIES

are Achieved the most noted success of any Medicines of Modern Times.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter have never doubted the specific properties of Cuticura, Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap, for the speedy, permanent, and economical cure of Humors of the Blood, Skin and Scalp. They are however, astonished at their universal success; for it was to be expected that in the hands of some they would fail solely from spasmodic or ignorant use of them

They are enabled to say without fear of contradiction that no remedies ever achieved in the short space of one year the number of wonderful cures performed by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SALT RHEUM,

Covering the Body for Ten Years. Permanently Cured.

LAW OFFICE OF CHAS. HOUGHTON,
17 Congress Street, Boston, Feb. 28, 1878.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter: Gentlemen,—I feel it a duty to inform you, and through you all who are interested to know the fact, that a most disagreeable and obstinate case Salt Rheum or Eczema, which has been under my personal observation from its first appearance to the present time,—about ten (10) years,—covering the greater portion of the patient's body, and limbs with its peculiar irritation and itching scab, and to which all the known methods of treating such disease have been applied without benefit, has completely disappeared, leaving a clean and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of CUTICURA.

I can and do heartily advise all similarly afflicted to try the remedy which has been so effectual in this case.

Very truly yours,
CHAS. HOUGHTON.

Liver Complaint.

And Dyspepsia Treated by the Resolvent, Gains 5 1-2 pounds on One Bottle.

GENTLEMEN,—I have had Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, with running sores on the side of my neck, for ten years. Doctors did no good. I have been spending for eight years and it did me no good. Everything I ate distressed me. I got reduced from 150 to 132 pounds. At last I tried the RESOLVENT and it helped me right off, and on one bottle I gained five and one-half pounds. It is doing the business, and I am going for it strong. Yours truly,

JOHN H. ROY.
114 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., Nov. 15, 1878.

NOTE.—Cuticura is admirable assisted in cases of extreme physical weakness, or when the virus of Scrofula is known to lurk in the system, by the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, without doubt the most powerful blood purifier and liver stimulant in the world.

Cuticura Soap is an elegant toilet and medicinal assistant to Cuticura in the treatment of all external ailments. For chapped hands, rough skin and tan, sunburn, and the lesser skin troubles, it is indispensable; as a soap for the toilet, the nursery and bath it is the most elegant, refreshing, and healing before the public.

These great remedies succeed where all others heretofore in use fail because they possess new and original properties never before successfully combined in medicine.

The Cuticura Remedies are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

STARVATION IN IRELAND. No fear of that while we offer the present inducements. Agents can make $20 weekly, and it will be their own fault if they do not clear $50.

THE OVAL CAKE

is the most economical form of Washing Soap. All bar or square cakes wear down in use to a large flat piece, too thin to handle and, therefore, wasted; while the OVAL CAKE or can be cut in two, the oval end clasped readily in the hand, and the larger end worn down almost to a wafer without any waste. COLGATE & CO. recommend their Trade-Mark Revised) to Careful Housekeepers, as only as superior in quality, but as in form the most economical Soap now made.

——How ridiculous a misplaced apostrophe will sometimes make things appear. The following request was made at church: "A sailor going to sea, his wife deserves the prayers of the congregation for his safety." It happened to be read thus: "A sailor going to see his wife, desires the prayers of the congregation for his safety."

——A country woman yesterday took an old high-backed comb to a certain dentist—or rather a party whom she supposed to be a dentist—in this city, and patronizingly requested him to put a set of false teeth in it. "For," said she, "altho' it is kinder old we wish to conserve it as it was my grandma's an' has about cum to be considered one of the family spinning wheels."

——Another bag-pipe friend arrived in the city yesterday. He was waited on by a committee of citizens and a detachment of the Raleigh Light infantry, however, before he reached Fayetteville street, where he had an engagement to discourse some of his sweet soul stirring music. When last seen he was making a speedy exit followed by brick-bats and other missiles.

——A citizen who is the possessor of a dog and an appetite for strong drink, reached his room the other night in a somewhat "how-come-you so," condition He carefully tucked the canine in bed, and then kicked himself down stairs. He did not discover the mistake until he went to yelp, and the dog tried to snore. Almost as bad as the fellow who put his coat and boots to bed and hung himself on the back of the chair.

——It is proposed to erect a monument over the bodies of the two young men who lost their lives in their efforts to save a young lady companion on Thursday last, and who were buried in Oakwood Friday. The citizens seem to take hold of the matter in a very earnest manner and several, have expressed their willingness to become one of one hundred, to give $10. each thus, raising $1000 for this commendable object.

Two Brethren Who Do Not Dwell Together in Unity.

W. V. Turner and James H. Harris are both colored men and both edit Republican weekly newspapers in this city called The People's Voice and North Carolina Republican respectively. William and James seem to be always at war with one another. Turner in his last issue of the Voice alludes, to the length of three columns, to a certain letter published in Harris' paper, signed "A Native Colored Republican." Now be it known Turner is charged with being a kind of carpet-bagger from some of the more Southern States and the letter makes mention this fact. Now Turner comes out, as before remarked, to the tune of a three column reply, and charges Harris with having written the letter himself. Well, the controversy is getting to be amusing, to say the least.

Brain Sauce.

"Two men got into a fight in front of the store to-day," remarked a merchant at the supper table last night, "and I tell you things were looking pretty rough for one of them. The biggest fellow grabbed a rod of iron and I made sure he intended to smash the brains out of the other one, and I jumped in between 'em."

The family had listened with wrapped attention, and as the head paused in his narrative, the young heir, whose respect for his father's bravery was immeasurable, proudly remarked.

"He couldn't knock any brains out of you, could he father?"

The head of the family gazed long and earnestly at the heir, as if to detect evidences of a dawning humorist, but as the youth continued with great earnestness to munch his fifth tart, he gasped and resumed his supper.

How to Disinfect.

The following is a simple method of disinfecting sinks and vaults, the means of which are within the reach of all:

Take an old oyster can or other tin box of convenient size, make two holes in the upper edge opposite each other, and through them fasten a piece of wire to form a handle. Let the wire be so long as to extend about a foot and a half above the can. Put a small quantity of sulphur into the can and on the sulphur pour a little alchohol. Set the alcohol on the fire and let the cup down into the sink by means of a string attached to the wire. Cover up the opening as much as possible, so as to keep the fumes of the burning sulphur within the sink and let it remain there till it burns out. This process should be repeated two or three times a week. The sulphuric acid gas generated will effectually destroy every germ of malaria with which it comes in contact. Of course care should be taken to prevent setting the building on fire, and no one should breathe any of the fumes or gas from the sulphur.

A Heartrending Spectacle.

Yesterday afternoon the Reporter sauntered into one of our Fayetteville street groceries. The proprietor seemed at leisure, and while seven or eight "old, important and reliable citizens" were holding down chairs and cheese boxes and unanimously agreeing that this was the greatest world they ever saw, a long, lank, though meeek looking stranger entered and said:

"Gentlemen I suppose you are all familiar with politics,"

"We are," they replied in chorus.

"And you know all about the cardinal rights and fundamental principles of liberty?"

"We do."

"Well, I am glad on it; I've made a bet with a fellow out here as to how the reading of the Constitution begins.

One of you just write me down the first ten words, please."

While he felt through his pockets for a pencil stub, every man began scratching his head and cautiously eyeing his neighbor.

One began muttering: "Now I lay me—;" a second "I am the cap'n—," while a third wrote on the top of a cracker box: "On motion it was voted that—that —

There was lots of coughing and sneezing and more blowing when a small boy entered and said the stranger's horse had ran away He rushed out and seven faces brightened up and smiled, and seven men took fresh chews of tobacco and tried not to look too important.

Pic-nic Promptings.

The Edenton street Methodist Sunday School will pic-nic at Littleton, on the R. & G. R. R. on Wednesday next Further mention of this will be made in Tuesday's NEWS.

The Baptists are antisipating a pic-nic on a large scale to soon be participated in by all the Baptist Sunday Schools in the county.

The first Presbyterian and Person street Methodist and in fact nearly everything and everybody are going on a pic-nic excursion somehow and somewhere prety soon. We may be permitted, therefore, to say that pic-nic's are about ripe. Well it isn't everyone who knows how to properly conduct a pic-nic, and being a kind of veteran in the business ourself we are going to throw out a few impromptu hints touching the management of a first class pic-nic.

It is of the highest importance that your mother-in-law should be invited; as a commander in-chief she will be indespensable.

A pic-nic without lemonade would just be no pic-nic at all; so you tip over the wash tub and concoct the beverage; or if it is handier, you can do as a Sunday School superintendent did at a pic-nic we attended once—chuck a lemon and two strawberries in the creek and sell it for strawberry lemonade.

The young man in black pantloons is expected to sit down on a custard pie The young man with white trousers must be asked to climb a tree and put up a swing.

A bug must light on the back of a young girl's neck, when she is expected to scream loud enough to bring out the fire department in the nearest town.

A black snake will next confront a party of young ladies who are eating lunch, all of whom will, of course, faint dead away.

After this has all taken place it will be about four o'clock when an ominous rumble of thunder will be heard. A race with the coming storm will be next in order, in which the storm will win by a good many laps. The train will reach your home about night and you will go to bed—and stay there for 2 or 3 weeks nursing a first class case of pneumonia. When you get well, if you are that lucky, you will settle a little bill of about $50 with your physician, and—wait for the next picnic, of course,
